INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the directors of

VIBE ARTS

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of VIBE Arts, which comprise the statement of financial position as at August 31, 2022 and the statements of operations, changes in net assets, and cash flow for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the basis for qualified opinion paragraph, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of VIBE Arts as at August 31, 2022, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations (ASNFPO).

Basis for Qualified Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the organization in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

The organization applied and received government assistance in 2020 and 2021. The government had not provided enough clarification on eligibility criteria around revenue recognition for not-for-profits and as a result, the accuracy of revenues used to determine eligibility was not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification, nor was the corresponding subsidy claim. Accordingly, our verification of the government assistance was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of the organization and we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to net assets.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations (ASNFPO), and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the organization's financial reporting process.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT (cont'd)

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, amongst other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

AUGUST 31, 2022

VIBE Arts was established in 1995 with the principal goal of engaging children and youth from underserved communities in the Greater Toronto Area in the arts, through participation in accessible, high quality and innovative programs.

VIBE is incorporated without share capital under Ontario law and is a tax-exempt registered charity under Section 149(1)(f) of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and as such is exempt from income taxes and is able to issue tax receipts to donors.

1. Significant accounting policies

The financial statements were prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations and include the following significant accounting policies:

(a) Revenue recognition

The organization follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions.

Contributions including grants, donations and sponsorships, that are earmarked for outreach programs are recognized as revenue when the related expenditure is incurred.

Unrestricted contributions, sponsorship and fundraising revenue are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Externally restricted contributions are deferred when initially recorded in the accounts and recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Where funds are received in connection with the creation of public artworks where a maintenance fund is required to be maintained, funds received are deferred when initially recorded in the accounts and recognized as revenue in the year in which the related maintenance expenses are incurred.

Program fees are recognized as revenue when the programs are held.

OACF Arts Endowment Fund distributions are recorded as revenue when received.

Interest and other revenue are recognized on an accrual basis.

Revenue from income earned as the intermediary is recognized when received.

AUGUST 31, 2022

1. Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(b) Fund accounting

The financial statements include the following funds:

- The General fund accounts for the general operating activities of VIBE;
- The Outreach fund accounts for the outreach programs intended to enhance arts education in the broader community. Revenues recognized in this fund include amounts designated by the contributor to be used for outreach programs;
- The Reserve fund general is an internally restricted fund created as a reserve against potential interruptions in funding or other revenues.

(c) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits with chartered banks less outstanding cheques, and short term money market instruments which are readily convertible into a known amount of cash, are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value, and with terms to maturity of three months or less at the date of purchase.

(d) Capital assets

Capital assets are stated at cost. Amortization is recorded at rates calculated to charge the cost of the assets to operations over their estimated useful lives. Maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred. Gains and losses on disposals are calculated on the remaining net book value at the time of disposal and included operations.

Amortization is charged to operations on a straight-line basis at the following annual rates:

Computer hardware	-	3 years
Motor vehicle	-	5 years

The organization reviews the carrying amounts of its capital assets regularly. If the capital assets no longer have any long-term service potential to the organization, the excess of the net carrying amount over any residual value is recognized as an expense in the statement of operations.

AUGUST 31, 2022

1. Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(e) Contributed services

The organization accepts donations in kind. The value of contributed goods is recognized if a fair value can be reasonably estimated and the goods are used in the normal course of operations and would otherwise have been purchased. Goods contributed for resale at fundraising events are not recognized in these statements, as the fundraising revenues are recognized. Volunteers are critical for the operations of VIBE and contribute significantly to its activities; due to the difficulty of determining their fair value, contributed services are not recognized in the financial statements.

(f) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenditures during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

(g) Financial instruments

The organization initially measures its financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value.

The organization subsequently measures all its financial assets and financial liabilities at amortized cost, except for short term investments, which are measured at fair value. Changes in fair value are recognized in excess of revenue over expenses.

The organization's financial instruments that are measured at amortized cost consist of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and deferred revenue.

2. Short-term investments

The guaranteed investment certificates earn interest of 0.25% to 2.45% (2021 - 0.25% to 0.40%) per annum and mature between December 07, 2022 and July 4, 2023 (2021 - May 19, 2022 and July 4, 2022).
